

I believe Sinclair Broadcasting's airing of "Stolen Honor" is an abusive use of its broadcasting privilege. It is partisan, and its timing is aimed at greater impact on the election. Sinclair's license needs to be critically reviewed, and if Sinclair does air it, questions of its professionalism and ethical standard need to be questioned by FCC. What is abusive to one side today can be equally damaging to another in a different situation.